

Are you passionate about play and about supporting children and their rights? Do you want to make a difference to children and their families within your community?

Working within breakfast clubs, after school clubs and holiday clubs, Playworkers provide a safe and welcoming environment for children with lots of opportunities to play, explore and inspire imaginations. Here are 10 things you can do to kickstart your career in Playwork.

1. Watch our video here which provides a glimpse into Playwork as a career.
2. Find out a bit more about the Playworker job role here through WeCare Wales (you can also find out about the Senior Playworker position here).
3. Read our template Playworker Job Description and Person Specification (from our 'Stepping Out' resource) to find out more about the typical requirements and duties of the role
4. Hear from Playworkers themselves – read our Playworker case study here to find out why Rebecca McGowan is so passionate about her job; and watch this video of a poem written by one of our former playwork qualification achievers, Rachel Williams, following the impact of Covid-19 back in Spring 2021.
5. The Playwork Principles are the professional and ethical framework for playwork. They describe how playwork is unique and should be central to the ethos and practice of all Out of School Childcare Clubs. Read more about the Playwork Principles here.
6. Find out what qualification would be most relevant for you via the flowchart here.
7. Clybiau Plant Cymru Kids' Clubs provide quality training opportunities facilitated by experienced, passionate Training Officers to help you to achieve a qualification in Playwork. Express your interest in completing a qualification in Playwork here.
8. Find out about what clubs are local to you that might be able to offer work/volunteering opportunities here
9. Visit the vacancies section of our website here, or look for vacancies via WeCare Wales
10. If you feel there is demand for new Out of School provision within your area, we have lots of support and resources available to guide you through the journey of setting up a club. Find out about our membership here. Members are able to access our Stepping Out resource, which contains over 150 policy and procedure templates, as well as chapters to guide you through market research, deciding on a legal structure, finances and more.
